

The Sage Education Alliance Program is designed to give students real-life experience by using the most progressive business software tools available. After attending courses taught with Sage software, graduates will enter the workforce equipped with job-ready skills used by thousands of businesses.

We invite colleges, universities, technical schools, and professors to enroll in this program to give their students hands-on experience with software that businesses rely on every day. Participating educators and their students receive free software licenses and access to related online courses on Sage University.
